Full job description

Your new company

With over 50 years history this client is an industry leader in the manufacturing / production sector providing steel products to several customers. Due to ongoing growth they are looking to expand their team and require Machine Operators to join their team on an ongoing basis.

Your new role

You will be required to operate various production and packaging machinery through the manufacturing of this companies' product. A background in manufacturing or packaging is desirable but not essential as the client will train you on all the technical knowledge and skills you need to perform in this role. You will work a 9 day fortnight with 5 days day shifts followed by 4 days night shift.

What you'll need to succeed

- - Experience in manufacturing (desirable)
 - Ability to pass a pre-employment medical
 - Excellent attention to detail
 - Available to work a rotating day and afternoon shift roster (5 days, 4 afternoons)

What you'll get in return

You will be working for a company that looks after and takes pride in their people. There is a great company culture that is driven by inclusion and diversity. There are opportunities for overtime, job share, additional training opportunities and an onsite Physio.
